

Governing Authority Policies

EREA Code of Conduct

Preamble

Since 1872, Catholic Schools in the Edmund Rice Tradition have been educating young Australians in every Australian State and Territory. Edmund Rice Education Australia Schools aim to offer a Liberating Education, based on a Gospel Spirituality, within an Inclusive Community committed to Justice and Solidarity.

The Code of Conduct provides overarching behaviours and standards which we hold ourselves accountable to which are operationalised within the respective governing bodies.

Purpose

This Code of Conduct (the Code) details, clarifies and affirms the conduct and behaviours expected.

The Code outlines the obligations and responsibilities of those in Scope and outlines EREA's position on interactions with students and colleagues, use of Technology, Sexual Misconduct and Sexual Offences, Workplace Bullying, Discrimination and Harassment, and use of drugs and alcohol.

Principles

The Code of Conduct is underpinned by the following principles:

- zero tolerance for any form of child abuse and a commitment to creating an environment in which the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people are paramount.
 - commitment to an equal opportunity workplace, free of discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment and workplace bullying.

- commitment to, and respect for the teachings and beliefs of the Catholic Church.
- values espoused in the EREA Charter and through the EREA Touchstones. Following Blessed Edmund Rice’s example, the Touchstones helps set the direction and define goals as EREA seeks to make the Gospel a living reality in its communities.
- commitment to fostering the dignity, self-esteem and integrity of each and every person. The provision of a safe, supportive and enriching environment is an essential element in achieving this objective.
- employment and other instruments of appointment requirement to uphold and comply with the Code. Signing the employment contract or equivalent instruments of appointment is an acceptance of responsibility to understand the Code and comply with it. Understanding and complying with the Code includes understanding the Definitions contained within the Code.
- Failure to abide by the Code may result in disciplinary action including termination. The severity of disciplinary action will be consistent with the severity of the breach of the Code.

EREA reserves the right to vary the Code as necessary, to reflect and respond to current legislative and organisational needs. Changes will become effective when communicated to the EREA Community.

Scope

This Code of Conduct applies to employees, volunteers, contractors, Committee, Board and School Advisory Board members (EREA Community).

Definitions

These are overarching definitions, which should be read in conjunction with state and jurisdictional instruments. For the avoidance of doubt, the legislative and regulatory definitions of each state and governing body will apply.

Child Safe Code of Conduct

Victorian Schools refer to EREA Child Safety Code of Conduct (Victoria) in each school's Child Safeguarding Program in place of this section.

EREA Commitment to Child Safety, Wellbeing and Participation

All children and young people have a right to feel safe and be safe.

EREA is committed to a culture where the safety, wellbeing and participation of all children and young people under our care is paramount. Particular attention is given to the needs of vulnerable children and young people, including First Nations children and young people, children and young people with disability and mental health issues, children and young people from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, children and young people who are unable to live at home, and those who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or intersex. We are committed to acting in the best interests of children and young people at all times.

EREA has zero tolerance of child abuse. Allegations and safety concerns are taken very seriously and treated in accordance with EREA's Child Safeguarding policies and procedures.

EREA is committed to nurturing the wellbeing of all children and young people, respecting their dignity, ensuring their safety and protecting them from abuse and other Harm.

When concerned about a child or young person's safety, EREA and the EREA Community have a legal and moral obligation to respond swiftly to protect the child or young person from Harm and report to the relevant State/Territory Child Safe authorities as required under relevant State/Territory Child Safe legislation and EREA's Child Safeguarding policies and procedures.

EREA demonstrates our commitment to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people by incorporating the following expected EREA Community behaviours and practices into our Child Safe Code of Conduct:

- ensuring that EREA has strategies in place to embed and enhance a culture of child safety and wellbeing through the leadership, governance and culture of the organisation
 - implementing specific Child Safe policies, procedures, training, a Child Safe Code of Conduct and Child Safeguarding Standards to support the achievement of a child safe culture
 - applying robust recruitment and selection practices for all EREA staff, volunteers, contractors, Committee, Board and School Advisory Council members (the EREA Community)
 - providing EREA Community members with induction, regular training and education on recognising the nature and indicators of child abuse and other Harm, responding to safeguarding risks and how to build culturally safe environments for children and young people
 - ensuring that the EREA Community understands the important and specific role they play individually and collectively to ensure that the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people is at the forefront of all they do and every decision they make
 - taking proactive steps to prevent child abuse and identifying risks early so that such risks may be removed or reduced
 - continuously reviewing and improving our systems and practices to protect children and young people from abuse
 - providing children and young people with the knowledge and skills to understand and maintain their own personal safety
 - involving families, carers and relevant communities in decision making processes that support the development of a child safe culture
 - responding swiftly to any child safety concerns and implementing clear procedures for managing and reporting child safety concerns, and
 - acknowledging the cultural diversity of families, and being sensitive to how this may impact on child safety
 - listening to concerns about the safety of children, and suggestions to improve the child safety processes in place
 - recognising and acknowledging those unique needs of victims and survivors of child abuse, both historical and current, by providing them with genuine care and pastoral support
 - taking into consideration the views of children and young people about decisions that affect their safety and wellbeing
 - empowering children and young people by taking their views seriously and addressing any concerns they may have.

Specific elements of EREA's Child Safe Code of Conduct are detailed below. The Child Safe Code of Conduct applies to EREA staff, volunteers, contractors, Committee, Board and School Advisory Council members (the EREA Community).

Student Interaction

The EREA Community holds a unique position of influence, authority, trust and power in relation to Students. By their very nature, Student interactions are open to scrutiny. All members of the EREA Community must:

- treat all Students with respect
- abide by Professional Boundaries at all times
- avoid placing themselves or a Student in a compromising position
- avoid actual, potential or perceived breaches of the Child Safe Code of Conduct
- have a firm understanding of EREA Ltd, the relevant Subsidiary Entity and relevant EREA School's Child Safeguarding Program
- apply and act in accordance with the EREA Ltd, the relevant Subsidiary Entity and relevant EREA School's Child Safeguarding Program
- be vigilant and proactive in taking all reasonable steps to protect children from Harm.

Professional Boundaries

All members of the EREA Community must:

- maintain Professional Boundaries at all times when interacting with Students, including interactions that extend beyond the Schoolsetting, School hours, School grounds, in person and by any Technology, including social media
 - ensure that social interactions with Students do not give grounds for allegations against them
 - not initiate or develop a relationship with any Student that is or could be perceived or misinterpreted as having a personal element rather than a professional element not engage in open discussions of an adult nature in the presence of a Student, or which may be overheard by Students
 - avoid, as far as possible, situations where they are alone with a Student. In such situations, the relevant EREA School Policy with specific reference to working alone with Students must be applied
 - not drive a Student in their car unless they have written parental permission to do so, and in accordance with their relevant EREA School Policy with specific reference to driving students

- only engage in paid tutoring or coaching Students outside of School hours in accordance with their relevant EREA School Policy with specific reference to paid tutoring or coaching outside of School hours.

Professional Boundaries between an EREA Community member and a Student may, or may be seen to be compromised by:

- treating a Student with favouritism, or perceived favouritism (e.g., by offering gifts or special treatment to specific Students)
- attending parties or socialising with Students outside of organised School events
- sharing personal details with Students
- meeting Students outside of school hours without permission from the School.

The EREA Child Safe Code of Conduct applies regardless of:

- the location of where a Student interaction occurs, whether on or outside of School grounds
- the time of when a Student interaction occurs, whether during or outside School hours
- the Student's age
- the Student's consent
- the consent of the Student's parents, guardians or family
- instances where the Student attempts to or initiates an interaction or relationship with an EREA Community member.

Grooming

All members of the EREA Community must not engage in Student related:

- Grooming or Grooming Behaviours
- sexual interaction
- Sexual Misconduct
- Sexual Offences.

These actions and behaviours are unlawful, whether consensual, non-consensual or condoned by parents, guardians or families.

Where a relationship develops with a former Student and an EREA Community member, EREA will consider whether the Member's actions speak to an abuse of their position whilst the former Student was a Student. Where abuse of the member's position is deemed to have occurred, it constitutes Serious

Misconduct and will result in termination and mandatory reporting to the appropriate State/Territory child protection agencies.

Personal Relationships with Students

There may be instances where a pre-existing personal relationship exists with a Student, such as family relationships or close family or other friendship networks. In these instances, actual, potential or perceived Conflicts of Interest may arise and Professional Boundaries may be tested.

Where there is a pre-existing personal relationship with a Student, EREA Community is expected to:

- be diligent in maintaining Professional Boundaries at all times both within and outside of School hours and on or outside of School grounds
- take steps to ensure actual, potential or perceived Conflicts of Interest are avoided
- comply with their relevant EREA School's Policy with specific reference to pre-existing personal relationships with Students and make any required disclosures to the School's Child Safety Officer and/or the Principal.

Student Behaviour Education

Student behaviour education practices in EREA Schools aims to facilitate the development and experience of responsible self-discipline amongst Students and to promote the well-being, safety and effective management of EREA School Student communities.

All members of the EREA Community must:

- always use positive and affirming language when speaking to Students
 - create open, safe and supportive environments where Students are encouraged to interact, socialise and 'have a say'
 - develop and use effective, consistent and appropriate behaviour education strategies in day to day interactions with Students
 - include clear, consistent and published methods of dealing with inappropriate Student behaviours which reflect and apply EREA values
 - ensure that Student behaviour education strategies are developed in accordance with the relevant EREA School Policies and other required standards such as Occupational Health and Safety and Disability Standards
 - refer Students who display recurring challenging behaviours, particularly unsafe behaviours, to the appropriate person in accordance with the relevant EREA School's Student Management

Policy

- exercise prudent judgement and intervene when Students engage in bullying, humiliating, or vilifying behaviour towards others in accordance with the relevant EREA School's Student Management Policy
- understand that use of any form of Child Abuse, Corporal Punishment, or other Degrading Punishment is expressly forbidden in all circumstances.

Physical Contact with Students

Members of the EREA Community are required to develop and exercise prudent judgment and sensitivity regarding appropriate physical contact with Students.

EREA Community members must not initiate unnecessary physical contact with a Student or undertake tasks of a personal nature that a Student can undertake themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes.

When physical contact with a Student is necessary within a teaching/learning experience, caution must be exercised to ensure that the contact is appropriate and acceptable for the teaching/learning experience to be performed.

Instances where physical contact with a Student may be necessary, beneficial or supportive include:

- assisting Students with special needs, e.g., allowing a Student to engage with a teaching/learning experience or the curriculum in general, in accordance with the relevant EREA School's Policies and Disability Standards.
- assessing an injured or ill Student. The Student should be advised of what physical contact is intended and where practicable, seek the Student's consent and have a colleague present
- teaching sport, music or other activities where physical contact of a Student is required to demonstrate a particular action or skill
- restraining a Student, consistent with the relevant EREA School's Restrictive Interventions Policy when the Student, other Students, a member of the EREA Community or a third party is in danger of Harm or is in imminent danger of Harm
- offering a Student a congratulatory handshake.

Physical contact referred to in the above examples:

- is only acceptable if the contact is reasonable for the management or care of the Student
 - must be appropriate to the age, maturity, health or other relevant characteristic of the Student

- is to be consistent with any individual behaviour education plan in place for the relevant Student

Student Physical Intervention: Risk Assessment and Response

Any physical intervention involves some risk of injury. This risk must be considered against the risks involved in failing to physically intervene when it may be warranted. Intervention may be warranted when a Student, other Students, a member of the EREA Community a third party is in danger of Harm or in imminent danger of Harm. Such interventions may be employed as a measure of last resort to ensure safety and protection in instances of:

- a Student attacking a member of the EREA Community or a third party
- a Student attacking another Student.
- Students physically fighting
- a Student causing, or at risk of causing an injury to themselves or others
- a Student misusing dangerous materials, substances or objects likely to cause Harm
- a Student placing themselves, deliberately or inadvertently, in a dangerous situation
- a Student being attacked by a third party.

Members of the EREA Community using physical interventions on Students:

- are responsible and accountable for the manner in which they exercise that authority
- must report all physical interventions to the Principal. Instances involving Principals are to be reported to the governing Subsidiary Entity Chief Executive Officer
- must be aware that physical intervention guidelines apply during off-campus excursions and camps as well as during School hours on School grounds. EREA School Excursion Policies may also reference additional applications, e.g., dormitory/Boarding supervision.

Use of Technology

EREA Community member electronic communications with Students is required to reflect Professional Boundaries that comply with the following:

- all use of Technology is to be for educational purposes or for School approved co-curricular activities
 - all online contact is to be via the relevant EREA School's email system
 - personal telephone numbers are not to be provided to Students

- personal social media and instant messaging accounts are to remain in 'Private' mode setting and not to be provided to Students

- Applicable policies and procedures relating to the nature of the complaint, including the EREA Workplace Complaints Policy, for complaints made by EREA Community Members.
 - Vexatious complaints will not be entertained. Members of the EREA Community who make vexatious complaints may face disciplinary action.

Procedures for Addressing Complaints

The EREA Complaints Policy applicable to EREA Ltd and each Governing Body details the procedure for addressing complaints made by external parties.

The applicable policies and procedures relevant to the complaint detail the procedure for addressing complaints made by EREA Community Members.

Queries

Questions, comments or concerns about the Code of Conduct or its application should be addressed to:

- the Principal or Deputy Principal for EREA School Community members
- the Governing Body Chief Executive Officer for their respective Community members
- the EREA Ltd National Executive Director for EREA Ltd Community members.

Review

A review of the Code of Conduct will be conducted annually or earlier if required, such as due to changes in legislation. The EREA Ltd Board is responsible for ensuring the Code of Conduct is reviewed and updated as needed. The review of the Code of Conduct must be undertaken collaboratively with representations from Governing Bodies to ensure that it remains fit for purpose.
